Make sure the class is open to freshmen

Grade offerings, credits, and semesters offered.

And check to see if it's a full-year or semester-only course.

PRACTICAL ARTS - BUSINESS

Course offerings in business are designed to acquaint students with the business community and to prepare them to communicate effectively with the business world. Courses are designed to improve students' skills in areas of business and to increase their capabilities as consumers. No sequence of courses is required.

INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS

9th – 12th Grade

Credit – 1/2

Semester 1

This course will help students to improve their economic citizenship by gaining a knowledge and appreciation of the American enterprise system. They will make wise and skilled decisions in selecting and using goods and services of businesses, and develop competency and efficiency in managing their personal and business financial affairs. Through the use of various activities such as discussions, simulations, technology, and peer collaboration, students are made aware of the integral role they play in today's society. Key units will focus on the global economic environment, business organization and management, social responsibility, entrepreneurship, marketing, operations, and technology.

HOW DO I CHOOSE AN ELECTIVE?

1. Review the green sheet of all the classes freshman can take
2. Focus on the elective areas
 - a. Fine Arts
 - b. Practical Arts
 - c. World Languages
 - d. Student Assistance
2. Review the Program of Studies for detailed descriptions
3. Mark electives that seem interesting

REMEMBER! WORLD LANGUAGE AND SUPPORT CLASSES ARE ELECTIVES

ZERO HOURS

- A zero hour is a class that meets outside of the 8 period school day
- On the green Course Offerings sheet the zero hours will be indicated with ##
- These classes are taken for credit and a grade
- Some classes meet daily before school and others once a week with lunch meetings
- Music and performance zero hour classes are by audition in the fall and will be added to the schedule
- Forensics (Speech and Debate) can be taken as a zero hour class or a student can participate in the activity without being enrolled in a class

REGISTRATION PLANNING WORKSHEET

Core classes are assigned by WMS and CHS teachers

Some support classes are assigned (will count as elective credit)

You can choose to take Learning Center if not recommended for it (will count as elective credit)

I highly recommend this! About 70% of 9th graders take Learning Center

- On your registration worksheet below the grid: Choose Electives
 - Check Performing Arts and World Language
 - List UP TO 4 others options and rank
 - Return to WMS Counseling by January 30th

THANK YOU

A string of eight colorful paper flags is hanging against a dark, textured wooden background. Each flag is secured by a small wooden clothespin. The flags are arranged to spell out the words 'THANK YOU' in a handwritten, blue ink font. The colors of the flags are: red for 'T', light blue for 'H', lime green for 'A', light blue for 'N', yellow for 'K', light green for 'Y', yellow for 'O', and light green for 'U'. The flags are slightly tilted and have a soft, natural lighting.
