2019-2020 SCHOOL PROFILE

Jamie Jordan, Ed.D.
PRINCIPAL

Wydown Middle School is a community of student and adult learners. Enrichment and support activities enhance students' academic interests — activities that include intramurals, performing arts, clubs, tutoring and community service opportunities. Developing strong parent partnerships and ensuring proactive communications provide a firm foundation for an education at Wydown. With numerous individual, team and whole school achievements, Wydown's focus remains clear: to continue the tradition of excellence and growth through its exploration, academics, community service and activities based on student needs, interests and development.

SCHOOL GOALS

- We will raise the achievement levels of our striving African-American students to increase the number of students in proficient and advanced by 10 percent on both the English Language Arts and Math Missouri Assessment Program (MAP) assessments.
- We will lower the number of our disciplinary referrals by 10 percent for African-American students.
