About Mrs. Jeni Goode

My family includes my husband Pete, my son Alex and daughter Carolyn. Both of my children graduated from Clayton High School. We have a small, white dog named Rosie. I love reading, walking and gardening perennial plants.

Plus, I LOVE teaching first grade.

My Background

I have a Bachelor's Degree from University of Missouri-Columbia in Elementary Education. I taught in Jefferson City for 7 years. When Alex was born, I stayed home and taught preschool. In 2006 I started in Clayton School District. Since then, I have earned a Master's Degree in Reading from Webster University, and a Specialist degree in Literacy Leadership from Lindenwood University. This is my 19th year at Captain and 26th year of teaching.
