

Solar System Research

To search for books on your planet at the CHS Library, go to:

<http://www.clayton.k12.mo.us/Page/1085>

To access online resources through the CHS Library, go to:

<http://www.clayton.k12.mo.us/Page/1106>

Click on “Online Databases” in left-hand menu.

Most databases automatically log-in from school.

DATABASES

General Reference

WorldBook Encyclopedia OR Encyclopedia Britannica

- Type in your planet in search box to read the encyclopedia articles on your planet.
- Click on tab “Related Information” to access related magazine articles and websites.

Ebscohost Research Center

Click on Science Reference Center.

Click on the picture or link to Space Sciences and Astronomy.

Scroll down to find your planet.

Opposing Viewpoints

Type your planet in search box.

Check Statistics, Reference, Academic Journals, etc.

World History in Context

Type your planet in search box.

Check reference articles, magazines, news, etc.

NASA

Planet information from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration:

<https://www.nasa.gov/topics/solarsystem/index.html>

