Welcome: The meeting was called to order by Jackie Militello at 7:00pm. Jackie introduced Kathy Ponder, a Clayton school district mom. She presented a proposal for the City of Clayton to add bicycle paths on streets near the high school. She would like support from the District so students will have safe routes to get to school. Questions and comments followed along with a discussion about becoming a 'greener' community and strengthening the Green Club at the high school. More discussions will follow in the future.

After Kathy's presentation, Ann and Jackie stated, questions anyone had for the school board members and candidates can be anonymous and need to be submitted by the end of January.

Treasurer's Report: Tina Holland presented the budget and received approval. She asked for approval to write a check to Louise from the FFE fund in the amount of $7,775.00. Approval granted.
