

VOCABULARY STAGE 29

---

VERBS

(Derivatives-if any)

circumvenio, -ire, -veni, -ventus	to surround incedo, -ere, -cessi	to march, stride malo, malle, malui	to prefer odi	I hate (perfect tense, but translate present) perficio, -ere, -fecii, -fectus	to complete, finish reduco, -ere, -duxii, -ductus	to lead back servio, -ire, -servivi	to serve (be a slave to) sperno, -ere, sprevi, spretus	to despise, reject

---

NOUNS

audacia, -ae f.	boldness, audacity
carmen, carminis n.	song, poem corona, -ae f.	garland, wreath cursus, -us m.	course, flight
dolor, doloris m.	grief, pain
ferrum, -i n.	iron, sword
liberi, liberorum m.pl.	children
lux, lucis f.	light
populus, -i m.	people, population
quies, quietis f.	rest

---

salus, salutis f.	health, safety
scelus, sceleris n.	crime
sors, sortis f.	lot (as in a tile picked out of a hat by chance)

---

ADJECTIVES

alii...alii...	some...others...
defessus, -a, -um	tired, exhausted
obscurus, -a, -um	dark, gloomy
vester, vestra, vestrum	your (belonging to you-all)
vivus, -a, -um	living, alive

---

ADVERBS

aliquando	sometimes
prius	earlier
undique	on all sides

---

OTHER

amplexus, -a, -um	having embraced
--------------------------	-----------------

---