

The Community Alliance for Healthy Kids

presents

A Parent Forum On Internet Safety

Presenters:

- Detective Kenny Nix, Founder of the St. Louis Regional Computer Crime Enforcement Group and member of the U.S. Attorney General's Computer Crimes Task Force
- CHS School Resource Officer John Zlatic
- WMS School Resource Officer Rob Wood

Wednesday, March 17, 2010

7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Clayton High School

Auditorium

#1 Mark Twain Circle

Find out:

- What problems are our school resource officers and the Computer Crimes Task Force seeing?
- What is the latest information that parents need to know?
- How can you monitor what your children are doing?
- What are the danger signs to watch for?
- What can parents do to protect their children from cyberbullying, on-line scams, and building relationships with people they meet on-line?
- FREE resources.