

2. Circle the functional groups are involved in joining these two monomers together and then draw ALL the molecules that will result from joining the monomers.

3. What molecules will be formed if the molecules below are combined? Circle each functional group involved in joining the molecules and draw ALL resulting products.

